Expertise

Litigation & Insolvency , Restructuring

Aline is a member of the Litigation, Insolvency, and Restructuring team in our Cayman Islands office. Aline specialises in complex, cross-border, financial and corporate disputes, many of which relate to distressed debt and distressed events.

Aline's practice focusses on a wide variety of offshore dispute resolution and insolvency based in the Cayman Islands, including complex, cross-border litigation, contentious restructuring and cross-border insolvency, fraud and asset recovery, shareholder and investment funds disputes, corporate investigations in relation to the prevention of dissipation of offshore assets, recovery of debt and assets and employee or stakeholder wrongdoing, contractual claims and enforcement of foreign judgments in the Cayman Islands. Aline also has experience in fair value appraisal disputes pursuant to s238 of the Cayman Islands Companies Act.

Prior to joining Harneys in 2023, Aline was an associate in the Hong Kong Dispute Resolution team at another offshore law firm. Before that, Aline was an associate at Bird & Bird LLP in London and Hong Kong, and an associate and trainee solicitor at Kirkland & Ellis LLP in London and New York.

Aline is a member of the International Women's Insolvency and Restructuring Confederation (IWIRC) and the International Association of Restructuring, Insolvency & Bankruptcy Professionals (INSOL International).
