Calamus Huang is a Partner in the Corporate and Funds team based in our Shanghai office. Calamus is an experienced transactional lawyer. She advises on a wide range of cross-border and multi-jurisdictional corporate matters, with a particular focus on initial and secondary public offerings (including listing of SPACs), private and public M&As (including going-private transactions and De-SPACs), joint venture, reorganizations and restructurings, establishment, and structuring of private equity funds as well as their regulatory compliance and downstream transactions.

Calamus has led a number of major overseas listings, including representing KE Holdings Inc. (NYSE: BEKE) as Cayman Islands counsel in relation to the dual primary listing of its class A ordinary shares by way of introduction on the Main Board of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, which deal won the 2022 CBLJ Deals of the Year award; and advising J&T Global Express Limited in its listing on the Main Board of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, which deal won the 2023 CBLJ Deals of the Year award. Calamus was on the 2022 CBLJ's A-List as one of China's elite 100 foreign lawyers and has been continuously named amongst The Growth Drivers in CBLJ's A-List for 2023 - 2024 and 2024 - 2025.

Prior to joining Harneys in 2021, Calamus spent 10 years in the China Corporate practice at Sidley Austin. Before moving to Shanghai, she worked in the Hong Kong office of Latham & Watkins and Linklaters respectively.
