Expertise

Litigation & Insolvency

Eltin is a member of the Litigation and Insolvency team based in our BVI office.

He advises on dispute resolution, as well as matters of public administration, regulation and governance. Eltin has advised multinational corporations and trusts in relation to cryptocurrency disputes, international asset tracing as well as regulatory compliance matters arising from mandates involving the Securities Exchange Commission of the United States of America and the British Virgin Islands Financial Services Commission.

Before joining Harneys, Eltin worked for several years at Ireland's largest law firm and for a decade at another leading Irish law firm. Eltin acted in leading constitutional law cases before the Supreme Court of Ireland and advised several multinational aircraft leasing companies in relation to a multi-billion euro dispute before the Commercial Division of the High Court of Ireland, one of the largest commercial cases ever to come before the Irish courts.

Eltin has lectured in commercial litigation at the Law Society of Ireland, is a former board member of the National Disability Authority of Ireland, was editor-in-chief of the Hibernian Law Journal, and is a published academic author.

Eltin undertook executive education programs in leadership and negotiation at Harvard Law School, Harvard University (2020) and at Judge Law School, University of Cambridge (2022-2023).
