Expertise

Litigation & Insolvency

James is member of the Litigation & Insolvency team, based in our British Virgin Islands office.

He has experience in representing large corporate entities and high net worth individuals across a spectrum of commercial disputes.

Prior to joining Harneys, James trained and qualified at Bryan Cave Leighton Paisner in London. In his time in the Business and Commercial Disputes team, he gained significant trial and hearing experience in large commercial disputes and international arbitrations. He also advised clients on complex contractual litigation, partnership disputes, and fraud.
