Expertise

Litigation & Insolvency

Kelsey is an associate in our Cayman Islands Litigation & Insolvency and Restructuring team, bringing expertise in a variety of legal domains. She focusses on fraud, director/shareholder disputes, enforcement of foreign judgments and arbitral awards, insolvency and restructuring, as well as contentious trusts.

Kelsey has been involved in large-scale litigious matters, acting for banks, insolvency practitioners, and other corporate clients across a range of industries. She has spearheaded cases involving fraud amounting to US$260m. Other notable achievements include successful winding-up petitions, applications for receiverships, injunctions, and Norwich Pharmacal orders.

Her expertise extends to civil litigation, where she offers insights into both contentious and non-contentious trust matters.
