Expertise

Litigation & Insolvency

Hung is a member of our Litigation & Restructuring and Insolvency practice group in Hong Kong. He specialises in complex cross border commercial disputes, shareholder disputes, fund disputes and insolvency matters in the British Virgin Islands and the Cayman Islands. Hung regularly acts on matters involving litigation in multiple jurisdictions and applications for interim relief such as injunctions, freezing orders or disclosure orders. He also has extensive experience in handling matters involving fraud, breach of fiduciary duties, asset tracing and arbitration. Hung advises clients from different backgrounds in the PRC and abroad, ranging from high net-worth individuals to listed companies and investment funds.

Prior to joining us in 2019, Hung worked in a Hong Kong law firm specialising in commercial litigation and handled matters such as winding up proceedings, shareholder disputes, fraud claims, breach of fiduciary duties, cross border contractual disputes and appointment of provisional liquidators. He also has extensive experience in urgent applications for interlocutory injunctions and pre-action discovery. He frequently represented listed companies in Hong Kong and overseas as well as directors and shareholders of both listed and unlisted companies.

Hung speaks English, Cantonese and Mandarin.
