Expertise

Investment Funds

Thomas Dugdale is a member of our London practice where he advises clients on investment funds and corporate matters involving both Cayman Islands and British Virgin Islands law. He specialises in hedge funds and private equity funds, specifically in their formation, maintenance and restructuring.

Prior to joining us in January 2012, Tom spent four years as an associate in the corporate team at McGuireWoods London LLP. He spent four and a half years at our Hong Kong office before relocating to our London office in 2016. Today Tom's expertise includes broad corporate transactional experience including mergers and acquisitions, corporate finance, equity capital markets, joint ventures and corporate restructurings.

Tom speaks both English and French.
