Expertise

Litigation & Insolvency

Victoria is a member of the Litigation & Insolvency team in our BVI office.

She has broad commercial litigation and insolvency experience with a focus on complex and multi-jurisdictional cases and advises a broad client base, including financial institutions, investors and insolvency practitioners, on all aspects of commercial disputes and insolvencies. She has particular expertise in financial services litigation and contentious regulatory matters.

Victoria joined us in 2021, having previously worked at Maples and Calder in the Cayman Islands. Prior to moving offshore, Victoria worked for a major US law firm in London and in the litigation group of the UK financial services regulator.
